Commitment to the Goals of Halton Interfaith Peace Camp: At the heart of peace building is relationship building. A wonderful way to build relationships is through open and sincere communication between diverse faiths and peoples. It is the belief of the planning committee that when we build relationships with others, it is less likely that we will wish them harm. The Halton Interfaith Peace Camp is an expression of a sincere desire for peace in our world.

As a parent / guardian, I am committed to supporting the stated goals of the peace camp by speaking positively with my children about each faith group and promoting positive interfaith relationships. I understand that the Interfaith Peace Camp does not promote evangelism or conversion efforts, as these are counter to the stated goals of the camp.

Please initial to indicate your commitment to these common goals: ()

Applications are subject to review.

Conditions and Waiver

(1) While every precaution shall be taken to ensure the good welfare and protection of the camper, Halton Interfaith Peace Camp and its volunteers, coordinators and sponsors are hereby released from any liability in the event of any accident or misfortune that may occur to the applicant. Each camper must be covered by Provincial Health Insurance or equivalent medical insurance.

(2) In permitting my child to attend Halton Interfaith Peace Camp, I the undersigned, in the event of an accident or illness affecting the child indicated on this form, authorize all procedures, including admission to the hospital and necessary treatment therein, as deemed essential for the care and wellbeing of said child. Such action is to be taken only when immediate contact with the undersigned or other indicated authorized contacts cannot be made.

(3) Parents / guardians agree to permit reasonable use of photos and videos or other pictures of the applicant camper in promoting the Camp or its activities and programs.

(4) Conditions of custody, if applicable, will be fully communicated in writing to the camp, including a photocopy of the section of any court order referring to visitation rights.

(5) I have read this registration form and I accept the conditions of enrolment as outlined above.
